⌘ COVID-19 Uplifting the Restrictions Update

The Ministry of Education announced on March 9 that child care settings could begin lifting the health and safety COVID measures. The attached detailed letter outlines the steps and the transition that the PPCC team is taking before fully lifting the health and safety covid measures. As we implement these changes, we will continue with the layers of protection as our priority will be to protect the health, safety and well-being of our children, staff, and families.

⌘ Extracurricular Experiences

Starting Monday, April 4th, we are going to start in person fun and educational extracurricular. The weekly experiences are listed below. As always feedback from families are welcome.
